THE WEXNER FOUNDATION

Strengthening Jewish Leadership in North America and Israel

The goal of The Wexner Foundation is to be a source of enduring benefit to humankind, with a special commitment toward strengthening Jewish life in North America, Israel and throughout the world. The priority of the Foundation is the enhancement and improvement of Jewish leadership.

The career areas designated for Wexner Graduate Fellows are:

- Cantorate
- Jewish Communal Service
- Jewish Education
- Jewish Studies
- Rabbinate

The Wexner Graduate Fellowship Program is designed to attract and support the most promising and talented Jewish men and women to pursue careers in professional Jewish leadership; to provide the best possible context for them to engage in professional graduate training; to enable them to interact extensively with outstanding Jewish leaders and with one another; and ultimately, to enhance the attraction of these careers of Jewish service, which are so vital to today's Jewish community.

Awards

Wexner Graduate Fellowships cover all tuition expenses and required fees plus a generous living stipend, the amount and terms of which are set in advance of each academic year.

Fellowships are granted for a two-year period and may be renewed for a one- or two-year term by the Graduate Fellowship Committee. Each year of funding is contingent upon evidence of satisfactory academic achievement.

Fellows are required to engage in full-time graduate study.

It is the purpose of this program to provide a context for graduate study that is free from distraction. Therefore, Wexner Fellows may engage in independent employment during the academic year only with the permission of the Director.

Fellows are required to participate in special programs held during the course of the year and annual interdisciplinary institutes sponsored by the Foundation. The purposes of these programs are to create a cohesive fellowship community and to impact upon the leadership and skill development of each Fellow.

- Wexner Graduate Fellows are afforded unique opportunities for ongoing interaction with outstanding Jewish leaders and for extensive interchange with each other. Fellows participate in an experience intended to be of enduring benefit.

Eligibility

Fellowships are awarded to North Americans who are college graduates and who plan to enter a qualifying graduate program. Wexner Graduate Fellowships are limited to those who have not yet begun their professional training. Applicants with graduate work in a different field, who wish to move into one of the above areas, are also eligible. Only individuals who plan to pursue a career in the North American Jewish community are eligible to apply to this program.

Awards are given to outstanding candidates who have a strong personal commitment to the Jewish community, who have demonstrated excellence in academic achievement, and who possess the potential to provide outstanding professional leadership that will shape the future of Jewish communal life in North America.

The Wexner Graduate Fellowship is a program focused on the development of promising young Jewish leaders. Applications are limited to candidates who are between the ages of 20 [college graduates] to 40 years.

The Wexner Graduate Fellowship seeks to strengthen professional Jewish leadership in North America. Wexner Graduate Fellows commit to serve in the North American Jewish community as a Jewish professional one year for each year of Foundation funding.

Application Guidelines

All are encouraged to apply, irrespective of denominational affiliation, gender, racial or ethnic origin, disability or sexual orientation. Please note the Wexner Graduate Fellowship Program honors the admissions policies of participating educational institutions.

Applicants to the Wexner Graduate Fellowship Program are required to submit to The Wexner Foundation, 8000 Walton Parkway, Suite 110, New Albany, OH 43054 by 10:00am EST, Monday, February 7, 2005:

1. Academic transcripts (undergraduate and, if applicable, graduate). Transcripts must be forwarded to the applicant in sealed envelopes stamped with the college or university seal; photocopies are unacceptable.
2. Scores on the General Test of the Graduate Record Examination (Institution #3134). The exam should be taken no later than January, unless otherwise arranged with the Director of the program.
3. Three letters of recommendation (forms attached), with at least one from an academic instructor who has worked closely with the applicant and one from an employment supervisor who is well-acquainted with the applicant and his or her work experience.
4. An acceptance letter (or confirmation of application) from the graduate institution(s) the applicant intends to attend. Please note that fellowships will not be formalized until there is official evidence that the applicant has been accepted into the program designated for his or her career preparation.

PLEASE NOTE:

- Applicants should collect all supporting materials, with the exception of GRE scores, and submit them to the Foundation in one packet. Applicants who do not use e-mail for referees must use The Wexner Foundation form (downloaded from the site) and instruct their referees to send their letters directly to them in a sealed envelope with the referee's signature across the back flap. It is the responsibility of the applicant to allow sufficient time when requesting supporting materials to assure the timely submission of the complete application.

Selection of Fellows

Finalists are required to participate in personal interviews, at the Foundation's expense. Awards are announced in May for the ensuing academic year.

The selection of Fellows is made by the Wexner Graduate Fellowship Committee, which is composed of leading academicians and professionals who are committed to the fields encompassed by the program.

Electronic and Paper Reference Process

Your references may be provided electronically or through the traditional sealed envelope method. The electronic method is quick and efficient. For those individuals whose e-mail addresses are provided below, our system will generate an e-mail asking them to complete an online recommendation on your behalf. They will log into this program and type in their comments. When those comments are saved, you will receive an e-mail confirming that the recommendation has been completed. If you do not have e-mail addresses for all three individuals, you will need to download and print the PDF (paper) version and follow the directions. You may submit some recommendations electronically and some through the sealed envelope method.

Recommendation Types
Provide the names, titles, telephone number and e-mail address of the three individuals who will submit letters of recommendation on your behalf. At least one is to be from an academic instructor who was worked closely with you and one from an employment supervisor who is well acquainted with your work experience.

You must enter three names, titles, and phone numbers before you can save the information on this page. If your particular reference person does not have an email address or does not wish to complete their letter of recommendation online, you may leave their email field blank for now or update it at a later date.

Traditional Sealed Envelope Method
For those references who do not have e-mail addresses or who were unable to complete the online recommendation process, you may download and print the PDF version for delivery to the reference. Applicants should instruct each referee to send his or her letter directly to them in a sealed envelope, with the referee's signature across the back flap. It is the responsibility of the applicant to collect these letters in advance of the January 30 deadline for timely submission to the Foundation.

Recommendation Confirmation
Once you have verified contact information for your references, please confirm by checking the box below. Once checked, the system will then generate the e-mail requests to your references. We have included this step to avoid duplicate notification messages. Your references will not be notified until you check and click the "Recommendation Complete" button.

☐ I agree that all email addresses listed above are correct.

Essay A Content Guidelines
The Wexner Graduate Fellowship Committee is vitally interested in understanding your career goals and how your projected graduate program will best prepare you for these goals. Inevitably, candidates will be assessed in comparison to others with similar career interests. In view of this, please describe in your essay the following as fully as possible:

1. The development of your interest in your projected career, particularly the critical junctures that played an important role in this evolution (e.g. Jewish experiences, family influences, role models, ideas).

2. What leadership skills do you take to be most critical to your own development as you prepare yourself for your designated career?

3. Why did you select your specific graduate program(s) and how do you anticipate your graduate program(s) will address the leadership development needs articulated above?

Format Guidelines
Please adhere to our essay guidelines which require that each essay be double spaced and use no less than a 12-point font. The essay must not exceed two pages using 3/4 inch margins. Be sure to include your name at the top of your essay to facilitate our printing and review. The Fellowship committee will only review essays which meet these specifications.

Preparing Your Essay for Web Upload
Using the instructions above, please exit this application and write your essay. Save the essay to your computer hard drive in a place you can easily locate. Your essay must be saved in either Microsoft Word (.doc) or Microsoft Rich Text Format (.rtf). Most word processing programs will save files as one of these formats. The file size of your essay must not exceed 50,000 bytes (approximately 50K).

THE WEXNER-ISRAEL FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

THE WEXNER-ISRAEL FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

The Wexner-Israel Fellowship Program was established in 1989 by The Wexner Foundation and Harvard University to enable up to ten outstanding Israeli government officials to study for a Masters Degree at the University's John F. Kennedy School of Government each year. The goal of the program is to provide Israel's next generation of leaders with advanced public management training. Through the Kennedy School's faculty, curriculum, students, and research centers, the Wexner-Israel fellows will have a rich environment for reflecting on Israel's policy problems and potential remedies.

THE WEXNER FOUNDATION

The goal of The Wexner Foundation is to be a source of enduring benefit to humankind, with a special commitment toward strengthening Jewish life in North America and throughout the world.

In addition to the Wexner-Israel Fellowship, the Foundation sponsors a Graduate Fellowship Program designed to attract the most promising young men and women to undertake graduate training for careers in the rabbinate, Jewish education, Jewish studies, Jewish communal service and the cantorate in North America.

THE KENNEDY SCHOOL

Harvard's John F. Kennedy School of Government serves the public interest by preparing leaders for service in government and other institutions in democratic societies, and by contributing to the solution of important public problems.

The Kennedy School of Government is dedicated to learning through research, professional education and systematic and sustained relationships with the scholarly community and practitioners from the public and private sectors.

Re: Grants to Wexner Heritage Foundation

Dear Leslie:

Per the requirements of the expenditure responsibility code section of the Internal Revenue Code, we have enclosed a copy of our 2004 receipts and disbursements and our 2004-2005 school year budget. The use of the grants is for the total operations of the Wexner Heritage Foundation which include charitable, educational, religious, scientific and literary purposes. Please be advised that we also make these reports available to you on a monthly basis.

Please contact us with any questions.

Grant Procedure Modification
Pursuant To Reg. 53.4945-4(d)

Grant Making procedures as provided under your advance approval letter dated 5-25-88(copy attached) have been modified. The Foundation believes the modification does not materially change the procedures from those described in the request to the Commissioner.

Providing the following modification is determined to be material, we request approval of the modification.

Modification- Living stipends are paid directly to individual fellows/fellas when college or university refuses to accept and disburse living stipend funds to the respective fellows/fellas. The Foundation correspondingly assumes expenditure responsibility under Sec. 4945(h) for the living stipend payments.
